

To work in UEM is a meaningful work with commitment, competence, efficiency and conviction. In a world torn apart we grow together into a worshipping, learning and serving community. The tasks in our three offices are as diverse as the members of our teams.

At the earliest possible date, we are looking for a

Coordinator for UEM's Regional Service in the Region Saar Nahe Mosel (all genders) including the cities of Bad Kreuznach, Saarbrücken and Trier. The region consists of four church districts. Most congregations are in rural areas or medium-sized towns.

The position is part of a team of 7 people based across the Evangelical Church in the Rhineland. We are looking for applicants who have theological competence, pedagogical skills, ecumenical experience and excellent communication skills. Professional and international experiences and leadership competence are preconditions for the position.

Your Tasks

- to raise awareness for the UEM community and the ecumenical movement in the church districts
- to plan, organize and coordinate ecumenical activities in the region with international perspectives, including preaching, giving lectures, implementing projects, organizing events, and developing international programs
- to participate in committees of the Evangelical Church in the Rhineland (EKiR) and UEM
- to work with Partnership groups
- to build cooperation with bodies and structures of the church, motivate and cooperate with people engaged in ecumenical partnerships, ecumenical relations promoting global peace, justice and integrity of creation.

Your Profile

- Theological or pedagogical qualification
- Professional experience in network development
- Expertise in developing innovative ecumenical strategies at the grassroots level
- Competence to work in ecumenical and international contexts
- Strong communication skills and ability to relate to people quickly
- German language skills are desirable
- Preferably, previous work experience abroad

We Offer

A stimulating job with a secure salary (remuneration in accordance with BAT-KF), flexible working hours with a home-office arrangement, and the opportunity to shape and contribute within an international environment.

We look forward to receiving your application by email at personal@vemission.org by 7 June 2026.
